1. Theme and Objectives

1.1. Theme

Students are to produce a short film related to the subject "Universal Declaration of Human Rights" with a special focus this year on children's rights and children seeking refuge. Students between the ages of 10 and 20 are encouraged to deal with the 30 articles of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) and to produce a suitable short film related to the content of the UDHR (playing time: three minutes) in co-operation with their teachers.

1.2. Eligibility

Eligible are students between the ages of 10 and 20

1.3. Objectives

The aim of the competition is to raise awareness among young people to human rights and the International Declaration of Human Rights with its 30 articles, especially to children's rights and children seeking refuge. The competition gives the students the opportunity to tackle the different topics from a cinematic point of view, and offers a platform for the presentation of the works as part of the film festival this human world. The film festival will take place in December 2013 in renowned cinemas in Vienna. More information: www.thishumanworld.com.

1.4. Film Genres
